DAWN AND DUSK

If you deny there is a God...
Or if you walk in doubt...Just let your eyes behold the skies.
..And take a look about...Consider now the dawn and dusk...
The brightness of the day...And how the darkness settles when...
The sun has slipped away...Consider just these miracles...The morning and the night...The fear in every shadow and...The hope in every light...Oh, there are other miracles...Including life and death...As earthly science cannot find...The origin of breath...But just behold the changing sky...And ask yourself
again...If there is not a God
Who is...The Ruler of all men.

A BRIEF HISTORICAL SKETCH

Sometimes relief from present problems is easily found by turning to the past. However small or important our place in the world, there is much consolation to be derived from the study of our own past or that of our forebears.

The first Hassebroek that set foot on American Soil was our own Father and Grandfather Freerk Hassebroek who came here in 1847 to German Valley, Illinois. But more about him later. His parents names were as follows:

(Father) Wm. Otten Casper Hassebroek born January 25, 1799 in Germany. Died December 25, 1853 at Mt. Morris, Ogle County, Illinois.

(Mother) Antje Freerks Sweers born March 25, 1805. Died May 25, 1865.

(Children)

Fentje W. Hassebroek born January 27, 1826. Died March 22, 1907. Married to Henry Kampen.

Freerk W. Hassebroek born December 17, 1827 in Germany. Died August 17, 1884 near Shannon, Illinois. Married to Jelkelena Pommer. Born at Freeport, Illinois in 1859. Died December 1, 1882.

Janna Hassebroek born December 19, 1829 at Westerhusen, Germany. Died March 3, 1910 near Forreston, Illinois. Married to Sient Doyen.

Wiemke Hassebroek born January 25, 1832 at Nee-moor, Germany. Died October 6, 1927 near Forreston, Illinois. Married to Heye Reints.

Albertja Hassebroek born April 19, 1834. Died December 31, 1860.

Casper Hassebroek born August 23, 1836 in Hanover, Germany. Died June 13, 1913 near Riley, Kansas. Married to Ida B. Groenhagen. Born November 23, 1838 at Hanover, Germany. Died November 10, 1929 at Riley, Kansas. They had 7 daughters and 5 sons.

David W. Hassebroek born February 12, 1839 at Hanover, Germany. Died April 5, 1903 at Manhattan, Kansas. Married to Mary Otto. Born August 12, 1847 at Lippe, Germany. Died September 19, 1922 at Manhattan, Kansas. They had 11 children.

Grietje Hassebroek born August 23, 1843. Married to Sikka Reints. After his death she married Conrad Kruse. Dates of deaths unknown.

Wilkea Antjetiana Hassebroek born June 19, 1850. Died November 20, 1872.

Margareta Hassebroek born August 28, 1843. Marriage and death not known.

HISTORY OF GRANDFATHER HASSEBROEK

Freerk Hassebroek left Neermoor, Germany the 21st day of March in 1847 at the age of 18. Along with him on a ship named "Roland" were two married couples with each one child and a young woman named Elske Reints. After eight anxious weeks they reached a harbor in New York. Their first plans were to go to St. Louis, Missouri. On arrival they became acquainted with some people that were going to northern Illinois. They told them of the damp climate in Missouri which made them change their plans and go to northern Illinois too. The trip to Chicago was made by boats. The boats were very crowded and they had to change three times before their arrival in Chicago. Chicago at that time was a small town with muddy streets. Chicago was already the trade center which made it the large city it is today.

Again fortune smiled upon them for they found 3 men ready to return to Oregon, Illinois and for a small fee they and all their belonging were taken along. Tired and well shaken up they finally arrived in Oregon. The trip was made in four days by ox cart. Along with them they had trunks of clothing, bedding and work tools. A vacant house was soon found which became their first home in America.

The new home was near Leaf River. Some of the men got jobs at the mill which had just burnt down.

In 1848 another group came which were friends and old acquaintances of the Hassebroeks. Some of them were Wessels, Reints, Everts, Browers and Hayengas. By the summer of 1848 there were 26 people living there and they called it the colony of "North Grove". This was the only place at that time where they could get in touch with their loved ones in Germany. From here they could receive and send their mail to Germany. More and more people in Germany heard of this wonderful America and began anxious to make this long voyage to this free country.

In 1850 many more people came to America. Some of the friends were Poppens, Ackermans, Jan Heerens, Buss, Dirksens, Collmans, Parks, Osterloo and many more. They settled mostly in Ogle and Stephenson Counties.

In 1853 in the month of September the first train called the "Illinois Centrall and Galena Railroad" came through Freepost, Illinois.

These pioneers had faith in God and were use to serving Him. They had Prayer Meetings in the Homes. They used the Langs's home first and then when it became to small they used the Freerk Otten Hassebroek's home on the Diehls's farm. As more new members came it became to small. As there were no ministers at that time Diricus Dirksen became leader of the Prayer Meetings. Their were 36 men and 25 women that belonged.

On 1852 they decided to build a church. Michael Osterloos gave one and one half acres of land to have the new church built on. Everybody helped to cut the trees and have them sawed at the mill. Since all of the material and labor had been donated the cost of that first church was small. The church was 22 by 36 feet and had few windows and doors. To offset this expense each family was taxed one dollar. The benches were oak logs resting on slabs of limestone. At the evening services candles were placed on the benches for light. They were very eager to have a place to worship and to serve God.

According to history Freerk W. Hassebroek and Jelkelina Pommer were married in the year of 1859 at Freepost, Illinois. The exact date is not known. They lived on a farm at Baileyville, Illinois. They moved later on to Shannon, Illinois. Thirteen children were born to them of which one died in infancy. The baby that died was named Martha Hassebroek. When the children were married they all took to farming and settled in Iowa with the exception of two that settled in South Dakota.

In the year of 1882 on December 1st Grandmother Hass broek passed away very suddenly of a heart attack. Grandfather Hassebroek passed away August 17, 1884. They were laid to rest in the cemetery at Forreston, Illinois. Their youngest son was three months old when his mother passed away.

Presently members of the family are found in the following states: Illinois, South Dakota, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Ohio, Wisconsin, Washington, Oklahoma, Texas, Florida, California, Oregon and Wyoming. Some of the younger generation are located in Japan, Korea, Germany, Switzerland, Alaska and Hawaii.

Much more could be said of the hardships and sickness these pioneers had to bear on the prairies of America. There was no Trading Post on this side of Chicago so each time they had to go 100 miles with ox teams to exchange wheat for flour and so forth.

In 1849 cholera broke out and many died, in some cases the whole family was wiped out.

Perhaps it should be mentioned that there are 10 Lena's and 8 Fred's named in Honor of their Grandparents.

In the 107 years that the Hassebroeks have been in America, the family has grown from 2 people to over 850 descendants of which some 55 have passed on.

In the Providence of God the Hassebroeks had been Blessed, and we can only add, that our Heritage is one of close association with God. May we all join with the Psalmist and say, "Bless The Lord O My Soul, and all that is within me, Bless His Holy Name, Bless the Lord O My Soul, and forget not all His benefits. Psalm 103: 1 & 2.

Most of this Historical Sketch is taken from a German Book translated to the American Language by Mrs. Fred Hassebroek Sr. The book is called the "Ostfriesen in America". It was written by Rev. George Schnueker in the year of 1917. It took him seven years of labor to get all the dates and history.

If we find a few mistakes let us not criticize for it has been very hard to gather all the material needed. Let us be thankful to have this as a memory of our parents who had to pass on so early in life to the Great Beyond.

ELBERTHA HASSEBROEK

Miss Elbertha Hassebroek was born in Forreston Township, Ogle County, Illinois on February 13, 1872, the eighth child of 13.

Of the 13 children she was a person of misfortune and was seriously handicapped. As a baby, of a few months she showed that she was normal in every respect. At the age of eleven months, for reasons unknown to the brothers and sisters something came upon her which impaired her mentality. This misfortune and handicap was a great burden to the parents. This burden was forced upon the brothers and sisters very early in the history of the family as the mother was taken from them when the deceased was 9 years old, and 2 years later the father passed away. From that time she was dependent on the help and care of the brothers and sisters, and in some instances the kindness of her friends.

In the closing year of the last century or at the beginning of this century she came to northwestern Iowa, where some of her relatives had located. Since then most of her life has been spent in Lyon and Osceola counties, with the exception of a few intervening periods that she spent with her brothers in South Dakota.

Her mental and physical conditions were such that she was compelled to live her life a homeless wanderer among her relatives and friends. But a home awaited her in heaven. She was devoutly religious, never retiring without saying her evening prayer. In the last few months when she needed special care and attention, she was found talking as it were to herself. When asked "What are you saying Bertha?" she answered, "I am saying the prayer my mother taught me."

The hymns used in the funeral service held January 29, 1937 at George, Iowa were some of the hymns she sang to herself when about her activities. She is relieved of her burden and suffering, singing the song of Moses and the Lamb, in glory, where all imperfections, physical, mental and spiritual are laid aside and eternal perfection is one of the blessings of heaven.
